

Low-Key

3 2 2 137m²

Low-Key keeps things exactly that - easy, understated and uncomplicated. With three bedrooms, two bathrooms and a double garage, it gives you all the good stuff without trying too hard, while open-plan living keeps everyday life feeling connected. Practical, comfortable and quietly clever, Low-Key proves that sometimes less really is more.

Noble master suite

Because you deserve a bedroom fit for nobility. Complete with walk-in robe and glamorous ensuite to really make you feel like the King or Queen of your castle.

Rear living

There's a reason this is the most popular layout – peace, privacy and quaint garden views. The hustle and bustle of the street will feel a whole world away.

Walk-in robe

Wardrobe overflowing? Enter – the walk-in. With shelving, hanging and storage space galore, consider your sartorial prayers answered. Yes, this sparks joy.

Open plan living

Because it's all about the 'flow'. Catch up on the latest gossip while stirring the pot (the one on your stove) without losing sight of the two or four-legged rugs.
